

b. The facts and circumstances of this abuse are as follows:

The most recent incident of abuse which caused petitioner to file this petition happened on or about the 19th day of September, 2008, at which time the defendant did:

Defendant (D) arrived at Petitioner's (P) house to drop off one of the minor children. When P tried to engage D in conversation because D had P's water shut off, D attempted to use his motor vehicle to run over P's foot. After yelling at him to stop, P got in D's vehicle and continued to ask D about their lack of water. D began screaming and swearing at P in front of the minor children. P asked D to stop, and when he refused, P grabbed D's arm to persuade him to stop screaming at her. D proceeded to push P so hard that he ripped his own shirt. One child became scared and ran down the street. D began chasing the child, and then turned back around and ran at P while reaching for his side (where he keeps his gun hidden). The police were called to the scene by a passerby at D's request, but no arrests were made. Officers indicated that next time P had trouble, they would arrest D.

c. Past incidents

Defendant has previously verbally threatened Petitioner. Additionally, Defendant's girlfriend from his adulterous relationship has also threatened Petitioner and her minor children. As a result of the harassment, Petitioner has had to have hers and her children's phone numbers changed four times. Petitioner additionally feels threatened because of Defendant's gun.
